

Being new to owning a French property and still living in Scotland it was essential that we found a reputable builder to carry out work on our behalf. We were recommended Stephen Fishlock and he exceeded everything we could have asked for. Not only is he a thoroughly nice guy, he kept us informed about every step of the progress and always took time to discuss and recommend changes and improvements to make the finished job better. We quickly became extremely confident in Steve and his principles of quality work and customer service. Nothing was ever too much trouble which, when you are hundreds of miles away, is a godsend and additional works we requested were priced and agreed upon quickly. Steve, unsurprisingly, is an incredibly busy builder but always manages to make you feel as if you are his priority client! The people with whom he works and employs are all high quality tradesmen and to say we were delighted by the finished works could be described as the understatement of the year.

We would highly recommend Steve and his team to anyone who wants personal attention to detail and an extremely high quality of work through an all-encompassing service. We genuinely cannot thank him enough.
